

Fred Chang, violin

Fred is a classical-trained violinist who actively performs in amateur and professional groups. His primary teachers were Jenny Rudin (Palo Alto) and Geoffery Michaels (Princeton). He has been a concertmaster and soloist in numerous orchestras, including the Palo Alto Chamber Orchestra, Princeton University Orchestra, UCSF

Orchestra, San Francisco Concerto Orchestra and Mimosa Chamber Orchestra (a small conductor-less string orchestra in New York). He has performed with professional orchestras including Apollo Chamber Orchestra (London), Chelsea Symphony (New York) and West Bay Opera (Palo Alto). He is an avid chamber music player and has participated in the Chamber Music Conference at Bennington, Vermont. After living in New York City for almost twenty years, he moved back to San Francisco in 2016. He currently performs in the Berkeley Symphony, the Bay Area Rainbow Symphony, the Bohemian Symphony Orchestra and the Black Rock Philharmonic.
